SALT LAKE TEAM DEFEATS THE OCCIDENTALS

Defeats Occidentals at Walker's Field by Score of 2 to 1.

NEITHER SIDE SCORES UNTIL NINTH INNING

Big Crowd of Fans Is Thorough-

As inning after inning passed without a run for either side, the large crowd grew interested and excited apace, and everybody in the grand stand and on the bleachers was on thotoes when the minth rounded to. The Occidentals scored a men from second who should never have reached the plate, but for a combination of daring on the part of the Occidental manager and the lack of alertness of the Salt Lake shortstop. The runner rounded third from second and kept on coming, when everybody including the Salt Lake shortstop, thought the safe and ane thing would have been to stop at ulird. The throw home from first was of quite perfect, to which post the sortstop had fielded the ball, nor was in time to nab the runner, and therete the Occidental scored.

PROMISED TONIGHT

When Salt Lake came to bat for its half, the last and only hope remaining, the first batter up found a safe spot in deep right field, and moved around to third on the hit. The hit might have been prevented had not the Occidentals switched men in right field and failed to move to positions naturally taken when a left-handed batter is up. But is wasn't and the runner came home on the hit of the second batsman following, the batsman between the two incidentally also coming in from second, which base he had stolen. That gave Salt Lake two runs and the game.

LARGE CROWD OF FANS

Fast baseball was on the card at Walker's field Sunday afternoon, when the Occidentals and the Salt Lake to Hanger L. Price for the reopening of the Manhattan clubs amatter shows at played eight shut-out innings, finally deciding the pame in the ninth, by a score of 2 to 1 in favor of Salt Lake.

The pitchers were at their best. The Salt Lakers got only five hits of Mooney, and the colored men were held down to three hits by Moser. Moser and Mooney were both given superb support. Although there were four and three errors, respectively, on the two sides, the story of the game is told in the heady pitching of the men in the box.
